

Yes, I'd like to be involved in my child's school.

As parents, we know you would like to have a positive influence on your child's education. Study after study shows that having parents involved in school activities directly influences a student's performance—for the better! What could be more important than helping your child succeed? Please take a few moments to let us know how and when you can take the time to be a part of the team here at Snow Rogers Elementary.
